All For Me Grog

Well it's all for me grog, me jolly jolly grog,

For I spent all me tin on ladies drinkin' gin,

*Well it's all for me grog, me jolly jolly grog,
It's all for me beer and tobacco.*

*For I spent all me tin on ladies drinkin' gin,
Far across the western ocean I must wander.*

I'm sick in the head and I haven't been to bed,
Since first I came ashore from me slumber,
For I spent all me dough on the lassies don't you know,
Far across the western ocean I must wander.

Where is me boots, me noggin', noggin' boots,
They're all gone for beer and tobacco.
For the heels are worn out and the toes are kicked about
And the soles are looking out for better weather.

Where is me shirt, me noggin', noggin' shirt,
It's all gone for beer and tobacco,
For the collar is all worn, and the sleeves they are all torn,
And the tail is looking out for better weather.

Additional improvised verses are always encouraged!

Baltic Street

My dain-ty lass,- lay you the blame. up - on the richt - fu' heid;— 'Twas daft ill - luck_ that bigg'd yer hame the wrang side o' the Tweed.— Ye hae yer toch - er a' com - plete,— ye're bon-ny as the rose, but I was born.. in Bal - tic Street, in Bal - tic Street, Mon - - trose.

My dainty lass, lay you the blame
 Upon the richtfu' heid;
 'Twas daft ill-luck that bigg'd yer hame
 The wrang side o' the Tweed.
 Ye hae yer tocher a' complete,
 Ye're bonny as the rose,
 But I was born in Baltic Street,
 In Baltic Street, Montrose.

Lang syne on mony a waefu' nicht,
 Hie owre the sea's distress,
 I've seen the great arms o' the licht
 Swing oot frae Scurdyness;
 An' prood, in sunny simmer blinks,
 When land-winds rase an' fell,
 I'd flee my draigon on the links
 Wi' callants like mysel'.

Oh, Baltic Street is cauld an' bare
 An' mebbe no sae grand,
 But ye'll feel the smell i' the caller air
 O' kippers on the land.
 'Twixt kirk an' street the deid fowk bide,
 Their feet towards the sea,
 Ill neebours for a new-made bride,
 Gin ye come hame wi' me.

The steeple shades the kirkyaird grass,
    The seamen's hidden banes,
A dour-like kirk to an English lass
    Wha kens but English lanes;
And when the haar, the winter through,
    Creeps blind on close and wa',
My hame might get a curse frae you,
    Mysel' get mebbe twa.

I'll up an' aff the morn's morn
    To seek some reid-haired queyn,
Bauld-he'rted, strang-nieved, bred an' born
    In this auld toon o' mine.
And oh! for mair I winna greet,
    Gin we hae meal an' brose,
And a but an' ben in Baltic Street,
    In Baltic Street, Montrose.

The Band Played Waltzing Matilda

Eric Bogle

When I was a young man, I car-ried me pack, and I lived the free life of the ro - ver.

From the Mur-ray's green ba-sin to the dus-ty out - back, I waltzed my Mat - il-da all o - ver.

Then in nine - teen fif - teen my count - ry said "Son, it's time to stop ram - bling, there's work to be done". So they gave me a tin hat and they gave me a gun, and they sent me a - way to the war. And the band played Waltz-ing Mat - il-da as the ship pulled a - way from the quay, but a - midst all the cheers, the flag wa-ving and tears, we sailed off for Gal-li - po - li.

Waltz-ing Mat-il - da, Waltz-ing Mat-il - da, Who'll come a-waltz - ing Mat - il - da with me? And their ghosts may be heard as they pass by that bill - a-bong, Who'll come a-waltz - ing Mat - il - da with me?

When I was a young man, I carried me pack,
And I lived the free life of the rover.
From the Murray's green basin to the dusty outback,
I waltzed my Matilda all over.
Then in nineteen fifteen my country said "Son,
It's time to stop rambling, there's work to be done".
So they gave me a tin hat and they gave me a gun,
And they sent me away to the war.
And the band played Waltzing Matilda
As the ship pulled away from the quay,
But amidst all the cheers, the flag-waving and tears,
We sailed off for Gallipoli.

How well I remember that terrible day,
How blood-stained the sand and the water,
And how in that hell that they called Suvla Bay
We were butchered like lambs at the slaughter.
Johnny Turk, he was ready, he'd primed himself well,
He chased us with bullets, he rained us with shell,
And in five minutes flat, he'd blown us all to hell,
Nearly blew us right back to Australia.
But the band played Waltzing Matilda
When we stopped to bury our slain.
We buried ours, and the Turks buried theirs,
Then we started all over again.

Now those that were left, well we tried to survive
In a mad world of blood, death and fire,
And for ten weary weeks, I kept myself alive,
Though around me the corpses piled higher.
Then a big Turkish shell knocked me arse over head
And when I woke up in my hospital bed
I saw what it had done, and I wished I was dead.
Never knew there was worse things than dyin'.
For I'll go no more waltzing Matilda
All around the green bush far and near.
For to hump tent and pegs, a man needs both legs
No more waltzing Matilda for me.

So they collected the crippled, the wounded and maimed,
And they shipped us back home to Australia:
The legless, the armless, the blind and insane,
Those proud wounded heroes of Suvla.
And as our ship pulled into Circular Quay,
I looked at the place where me legs used to be
And thanked Christ there was no-one there waiting for me
To grieve and to mourn and to pity.
But the band played Waltzing Matilda
As they carried us down the gangway.
But nobody cheered, they just stood and stared,
Then they turned all their faces away.

So now every April, I sit on my porch,
And I watch the parade pass before me,
And I see my old comrades, how proudly they march,
Renewing old dreams and past glory.
And the old men march slowly, all bent, stiff and sore,
The tired old heroes from a forgotten war,
And the young people ask, "What are they marching for?",
And I ask myself the same question.
But the band plays Waltzing Matilda,
And the old men still answer the call,
But year by year, their numbers get fewer,
Someday no one will march there at all.

Waltzing Matilda, Waltzing Matilda,
Who'll come a-waltzing Matilda with me?
And their ghosts may be heard
As they pass by that billabong,
Who'll come a-waltzing Matilda with me?

Farewell to the Gold

Paul Metsers

Shot-ov-er riv-er, your gold it's wan-ing, it's years since the col-our I've seen. But it's no use just sit-ting and La - dy luck blam - ing,
So I'll pack up and make the break- clean. Farewell to the gold, that ne- ver I found. Good-bye to the nug-gets that some-where a - bound. For it's on - ly when dream-ing that I see you gleam-ing down in the dark, deep und - er - ground.

Shotover river, your gold it's waning,

It's years since the colour I've seen.

But it's no use just sitting and Lady Luck blaming,
So I'll pack up and make the break clean.

Farewell to the gold that never I found.

Goodbye to the nuggets that somewhere abound.

*For it's only when dreaming that I see you gleaming
Down in the dark, deep underground.*

It's nearly two years since I left my old mother
For adventure and gold by the pound.

With Jimmy the prospector - he was another
And to the hills of Otago we were bound.

We worked the Cardrona's dry valley all over,
Old Jimmy Williams and me.

But they were panning good dirt on the winding Shotover,
So we headed down there just to see.

We sluiced and we cradled for day after day,
    Making hardly enough to get by,
Til a terrible flood swept poor Jimmy away
    During six stormy days in July.

Hard Times

Let us pause in life's pleasures and count the many tears while we all sup sorrow with the poor. There's a song that will linger for ev - er in our ears: Oh hard times, come ag - ain no more. It's a song, the sigh of the wea - ry, Hard times, hard times, come ag - ain no more. Ma - ny days you have lin - gered a - round my ca - bin door, oh, hard times, come ag - ain no more.

Let us pause in life's pleasures and count the many tears

While we all sup sorrow with the poor.

There's a song that will linger forever in our ears:

Oh, hard times, come again no more.

*It's a song, the sigh of the weary,
Hard times, hard times, come again no more.
Many days you have lingered around my cabin door,
Oh, hard times, come again no more.*

While we seek mirth and beauty and music light and gay,

There are frail forms waiting at the door.

Though their voices are silent their pleading lips will say,
“Oh, hard times, come again no more.”

There's a pale drooping maiden who toils her life away
With a worn heart, whose better days are o'er.

Though her voice would be merry, 'tis sighing all the day,
Oh, hard times, come again no more.

'Tis a sigh that is wafted across the troubled wave,

'Tis a wail that is heard upon the shore,

'Tis a dirge that is murmured across the lowly grave:
Oh, hard times, come again no more.

Way haul away, we'll haul away, Joe.

It made him sing and dance a jig, he felt so fine and frisky.

Way haul away, we'll haul away, Joe.

King Louis was the king of France before the revolution,

Way haul away, we'll haul away, Joe.

But then he got his head cut off which spoiled his constitution.

Way haul away, we'll haul away, Joe.

The captain's in his cabin, drinking wine and brandy.

Did you see the ship set sail?

Last Trip Home

Davy Steele

John McCusker

A've aye worked on farms. an frae the start, — The muckle horse - s won ma heart. — Wi' big strong backs they proud - ly stand, — the un-crowned kings o' a' the land. And yet for a' their power.
 — and strength, They're gen-tle as a sum-mer's wind. So stea-dy, boys, walk on, oor work is near - ly done. No more we'll till or ploo the fields, the horse-s' day is gone, an' this will be oor last trip home, so stea - dy, boys, walk on.

A've aye worked on farms an frae the start,
 The muckle horses won ma heart.
 Wi' big strong backs they proudly stand,
 The uncrowned kings o' a' the land.
 And yet for a' their power and strength,
 They're gentle as a summer's wind.

*So steady, boys, walk on,
 Oor work is nearly done.
 No more we'll till or ploo the fields,
 The horses' day is gone,
 An' this will be oor last trip home,
 So steady, boys, walk on.*

You'll hear men sing their songs of praise
    Of Arab stallions in a race,
    Or hunters wha' fly wi' the hounds
Tae chase the fox and run him down,
    But name o' them compares, I vow
Tae a workin' pair that pulls a plough.

Well of a' the years I've plied my trade
And a' the fields we've ploo'd and laid,
    I never thought I'd see the time
When a Clydesdale's work wid ever end.
    But progress runs its driven course,
And tractors hae replaced the horse.

As we head back, oor friends have lined
    The road tae be there one last time,
For none of them would want tae miss
    The chance tae see us pass like this.
They'll say they saw in years tae come
    The muckle horses' last trip home.

Mad Maudlin's Search

For to find Mad Tom of Bed - lam, ten thou-sand miles I'd tra - vel, Mad
Maud - lin goes on dir - ty toes for to save her shoes from gra - vel.
Still I sing bon - ny boys, bon - ny mad boys, Bed-lam boys are bon - ny, For they all go bare and they live by the air and they want no drink nor mo - ney.

For to find Mad Tom of Bedlam, ten thousand miles I'd travel,
Mad Maudlin goes on dirty toes for to save her shoes from gravel.

*Still I sing bonny boys, bonny mad boys, Bedlam boys are bonny,
For they all go bare and they live by the air and they want no drink nor money.*

I now repent that ever Mad Tom was so disdainèd,
My wits were lost since him I crossed - it makes me thus go chainèd.

I went to Satan's Kitchen to beg some food one morning,
And there I got souls piping hot, all on the spit a-turning.

I there picked up a cauldron where boiled ten thousand harlots,
Though full of flame, I drank the same to the health of all such varlets.

My staff has murdered giants, my bag a long knife carries,
For to cut mince pies from children's thighs, with which to feed the fairies.

The spirits white as lightning will on my travels guide me,
The stars would shake and the moon would quake whenever they espied me.

No gypsy, slut, or doxy shall win my Mad Tom from me.
I'll drink all night, with the stars I'll fight; the fray shall well become me.

And when that I have murdered the man in the moon to powder,
His staff I'll break and his dog I'll take, then howl no demon louder.

A spirit hot as lightning did on that journey guide me.
The stars did shake and the pale moon quake as soon as ere they spied me.

So drink to Tom o' Bedlam, go fill the seas in barrels.
I'll drink it all, well brewed with gall, and maudlin drunk I'll quarrel.

Also known as Mad Tom of Bedlam.

Only Remembered

Horatius Bonar

Ira Sankey

Fa-ding aw - ay like the stars of the mor-ning, los-ing their light in the glo-ri - ous sun;
thus would we pass from the earth and its toi-ling, on-ly re - mem-bered by what we have done.
On-ly re - mem-bered, on-ly re - mem-bered, on-ly re - mem-bered for what we have done;
thus would we pass from the earth and its toil-ing, on-ly re - mem-bered by what we have done.

Fading away like the stars of the morning,
Losing their light in the glorious sun;
Thus would we pass from this earth and its toiling,
Only remembered by what we have done.

*Only remembered, only remembered,
Only remembered for what we have done;
Thus would we pass from this earth and its toiling,
Only remembered by what we have done.*

Only the truth that in life we have spoken,
Only the seed that in life we have sown;
These shall pass onward when we are forgotten,
Only remembered by what we have done.

*Only remembered, only remembered,
Only remembered for what we have done;
These shall pass onward when we are forgotten,
Only remembered by what we have done.*

Who'll sing the anthem and who'll tell the story?
Will the line hold? Will it scatter and run?
Shall we at last be united in glory?
Only remembered by what we have done.

*Only remembered, only remembered,
Only remembered for what we have done;
These shall pass onward when we are forgotten,
Only remembered by what we have done.*

The Portree Kid

Stan Jones

A man cam' rid - ing oot the west one wild and stor - my day, He was tall, quiet and hun - gry, his eyes were smo - ky grey. He was lean ac -ross the hur - dies, but his shoul-ders they were big. The ter-ror o' the hielan' glens, that was the Por-tree Kid. Hendum ho, — he drum. hey, — The teuch-ter that cam' frae Skye.

A man cam' riding oot the west one wild and stormy day,
He was tall, quiet, and hungry, his eyes were smokey grey.
He was lean across the hurdies, but his shoulders they were big.
The terror o' the hielan' glens, that was the Portree Kid.

His sidekick was an orra'man, and oh but he was mean,
He was called the Midnight Ploughboy, and he cam' frae Aberdeen.
He had twenty-seven notches in his cromack so they say,
And he killed a million Indians way up in Stornaway.

*He drum ho, he drum hey,
The teuchter that cam' frae Skye.*

Portee booted in the door, he sauntered tae the bar,
He poured a shot of Crabbies, he shouted Slàinte Mhath,
While Midnight was being chatted up by a bar room girl called Pam
Who said "Well howdy stranger, wad' ye buy's a Babycham?"

Now over in the corner sat three men frae Auchtertool
They were playing games for money, in a snakes and ladders school.
The fourth man was a southerner who'd come up from Macmerry,
He'd been a river gambler on the Ballachulish Ferry.

Portree walked tae the table and he shouted "Shake me in!",

He shoogled on the eggcup, he gave the dice a spin.

He threw seven sixes in a row, the game was nearly done,
But then he landed on a snake, and finished on square one.

The game was nearly over and Portree was doing fine.

He'd landed on a ladder, he was up to forty nine.

He only had but one to go and the other man was beat,
But the gambler cowped the board up and shouted "You're a cheat!"

Men dived behind their rubber plants to try and save their skins,
The accordionist stopped playing, his sidekick dropped the spoons.

He says "I think it's funny, you've been up that ladder twice,
And ye ayeways dunt the table when I go tae throw my dice."

The gambler drew his Sgian-Dubh as fast as lightning speed,

Portree grabbed a screwtop, he cracked him o'er the heid,

Then he gave him laldy wi' a salmon off the wall,

And he finished off the business wi' his lucky grousefoot's claw.

Portree walked up tae the bar, he says "I'll hae a half
And d'ye like the way I stuck it on that wee Macmerry nyaff?"
But the southerner crept up behind, his features wracked with pain,
And he gubbed him wi' an ashtray made oot o' a curling stane.

The fight went raging on all night till opening time next day,

Wi' a break for soup and stovies aff a coronation tray.

It was getting kind of obvious that neither man would win

When came the shout that stopped it all: "There's a bus trip coming in!"

They sing this song in Galashiels and up by Peterheid,

Way down o'er the border and across the Rio Tweed,

About what became o' Portree, Midnight, and the Gambling Man:

They opened up a gift shop selling fresh air in a can.

Rolling Down To Old Maui

'Tis a damn tough life full of toil and strife we whaler-men und - er - go, and we won't give a damn when the gale is done how hard the winds did blow, for we're home - ward bound from the Arc - tic Ground on a good ship taught and free, and we won't give a damn when we drink our rum with the girls of Old Mau - i. Rol-ling down to Old_ Mau - i, me boys, rol-ling down to Old_ Mau - i, we're home - ward bound from the Arc - tic__ground, rol-ling down to Old_ Mau - i.

'Tis a damn tough life full of toil and strife we whaler-men undergo,
And we won't give a damn when the gale is done how hard the winds did blow,
For we're homeward bound from the Arctic Ground on a good ship taught and free,
And we won't give a damn when we drink our rum with the girls of Old Maui.

Rolling down to Old Maui, me boys, rolling down to Old Maui, We're homeward bound from the Arctic Ground, rolling down to Old Maui.

Once more we sail with a Northerly gale through the ice and wind and rain.

Them coconut fronds, them tropical lands we soon shall see again.

For six hellish months we're bound away on the cold Kamchatka sea,
But now we're bound from the Arctic Ground, rolling down to Old Maui.

Once more we sail with a Northerly gale towards our island home.
Our mainmast sprung, our whaling done, and we ain't got far to roam.
Our stans'ls bones is carried away, what care we for that sound?
A living gale is after us, thank god we're homeward bound.

How soft the breeze through the island trees, now the ice is far astern.

Them native maids, them tropical glades is awaiting our return.

Even now their big, brown eyes look out, hoping some fine day to see

Our baggy sails running 'fore the gales, rolling down to Old Maui.

Sail Away

Elliot Parrott

In the fog - gy mor - ning, when the dew is on the grass, and the black-bird's. sing-ing. and the spring's. come. at last, I'll sail a - way, I'll sail a - way, I'll sail a - way.
I'll sail a - way, sail a - way. way, sail a - way.

In the foggy morning,
When the dew is on the grass,
And the blackbird's singing,
And the spring's come at last,

*I'll sail away, I'll sail away,
I'll sail away, I'll sail away, sail away.*

Tell my mother and father
That I'm bound away to sea,
Where the salt wind's at my shoulder,
And there's no-one to bother me.

I'll get up bright and early,
Throw on my pack and go.
Tell all the folk who knew me
That I'm away and bound to rove.

There's a vessel waiting
Down by the silver shore,
And on it soon I'll be a-hasting
Where fears can't trouble me no more.

Leave my sorrows behind me
Upon the fast-receding sand,
And let me revel in the wild wind's glee,
And freedoms seldom found on land.

Let the waves quell my anger,
Drown all my bitterness and shame,
Smooth my rougher edges over;
Though I may never quite be tame.

Let those sea monsters rage below,
In their home, the briny deep,
While far above the ocean rocks me slow,
And in her arms I'll safely sleep.

The Wellerman

There once was a ship that put to sea, and the name of the ship was the Bil-ly of Tea. The winds blew up, her bow dipped down, blow, my bul ly boys, blow.

Soon may the Wel-ler-man come to bring us su-gar and tea and rum.

One day when the tong-u-ing is done we'll take our leave and go.

There once was a ship that put to sea
And the name of the ship was the Billy of Tea.
The winds blew up, her bow dipped down,
Blow, me bully boys, blow

*Soon may the Wellerman come
To bring us sugar and tea and rum.
One day, when the tonguing is done
We'll take our leave and go.*

She had not been two weeks from shore
When down on her a right whale bore.
The captain called all hands and swore
He'd take that whale in tow.

Before the boat had hit the water
The whale's tail came up and caught her.
All hands to the side, harpooned and fought her
As she dived down below.

No line was cut, no whale was freed,
The captain's mind was not on greed,
For he belonged to the whaleman's creed;
She took that ship in tow.

For forty days or even more
The line went slack then tight once more.
All boats were lost, there were only four,
But still that whale did go.

As far as I've heard, the fight's still on,
The line's not cut and the whale's not gone,
The Wellerman makes his regular call
To encourage the captain, crew and all.

The Whitby Smuggler Song

Mike Donald

I once had a long long talk with a col-lier cap-tain,_ strol-ling down by the old quay - side._ His hold was filled with tob - acc-o____ that was smug-gled up the Esk on the tide.
Give me a guin-ea for me bran-dy,____ make me a prof-it on the job,
Give me a guin-ea for me bran-dy,____ it's the King's exc - ise men that I rob.

I once had a long long talk with a collier captain,
Strolling down by the old quayside.
His hold was filled with tobacco
That was smuggled up the Esk on the tide.

*Give me a guinea for me brandy,
Make me a profit on the job.
Give me a guinea for me brandy,
It's the King's excise men that I rob.*

Now the gang they had the old Ship Inn at Saltburny,
John Andrew he was the licensee.
A Scotsman come way down from the mountains,
Now he's making his fortune by the sea.

Now beware the Mermaid and the Eagle,
The king has put those tall ships out to sea,
They'll run down, they'll wreck the Morgan Rattler,
And they'll send the figurehead to old Whitby.

Now me salty lads of Cleveland you must listen:
Don't sail the same tide as Andrew's men.
Be a jet miner or a whaler,
Or the excise men will get you in the end.
